THE STANDING RULES OF
THE FOLK DANCE FEDERATION OF CALIFORNIA, SOUTH, INC.
A California Corporation

I. GENERAL

- A. These Standing Rules are intended to serve as guidelines for the operation of the Federation. In the event of a conflict with the By-Laws, the By-Laws shall govern.
- B. The Standing Rules may be added, revised or deleted by a simple majority vote at any regular federation council meeting.
- C. It is the policy of the federation to be non-discriminatory in all of its actions.

II. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- A. The Board of Directors shall be empowered by the council, in accordance with Section 4 of Article V of the By-Laws to do the following:
  - 73224756.Advance money from the federation general fund to federation officers and committees, upon request, if such expenditure is in the approved budget for the fiscal year.
  - 73224757.Approve the interim appointment by the president, of a committee chairperson to fill a position vacated prior to the expiration of the term of office for that committee.
  - 73224758.Set or change dates for approved federation events when such action is prudent prior to a scheduled council meeting.
- B. The Board of Directors shall report any action taken by the board, in accordance with Section A above, at the next council meeting. The report shall be presented orally, and submitted in writing to the recording secretary.
- C. Officers shall submit at the end of their term 2 copies of operating procedures, one for the next chairperson and one for the president.

III. COMMITTEES, GENERAL

- A. Unless otherwise specifically stated, all committees, including the chairpersons, shall be appointed and/or removed by the president with the approval of the council. The president and chairperson may confer in the selection of each committee.
- B. Unless otherwise specifically stated, all standing committees shall serve for one year from July 1st through June 30th.
- C. In order to maintain continuity from term to term, it is recommended that part of the committee be reappointed each year and that the chairperson will have served on the committee previously, or will have had similar experience.
- D. Also to insure continuity from term to term, the standing committee chairpersons shall submit at the end of their term two (2) copies of a committee operating procedure, one for the next chairperson and one for the president.
- E. A committee may make a recommendation for a chairperson for the next term, or in the event of a vacancy.
- F. All committee reports at council meetings shall be presented orally, and submitted in writing to the recording secretary.
- G. The President shall be an ex-officio member on all committees except the nominating committee.

IV. COMMITTEE DESCRIPTIONS

A. SERVICE AWARD(S) (Ad Hoc)

The Federation is dependent on the work of many committed volunteers who give generously of their time, talent and energy. It is extremely important to express appreciation in formal and informal ways. There are some active individuals who make contributions which have had an extraordinary impact on the Federation's effectiveness, and should receive special recognition. The concept of the award does not preclude other actions which the Executive Committee may choose to take.

In order to emphasize the special nature of the individual(s) so honored, it would not be necessarily presented every year. A three (3) person ad hoc committee will be established periodically to evaluate possible recipients, determine whether an award is appropriate and, if so, identify the person or persons to receive the award.

STANDING RULES, page 3

The "Outstanding Service Award" should be based on:

73224824. Longevity of service to the federation and active for at least fifteen (15) years.

73224825. That an individual's contribution has had a marked influence and greatly benefited the federation in a substantial number of ways.

Presentation of the award shall be made at a time and place determined by the committee to provide maximum impact.

B. CAMP HESS KRAMER

The purpose of the camp is to stimulate interest, spread the cultures of America and foreign lands, and promote international understanding through the expression of these cultures involving the media of dance, songs, and related arts; to gain a better appreciation of our ancestry; to create a wholesome recreational outlet and a source of material for dancers, teachers, and recreational personnel.

73224892. A workshop shall be sponsored by the Folk Dance Federation of California, South, Inc., and be held at Camp Hess Kramer.

73224893. The committee shall:

- a. Submit the date to council or board of directors for approval.
- b. Arrange for facilities, teachers and materials.
- c. Provide syllabi.

- d. Transmit publicity.
- e. Maintain a separate bank account requiring two (2) signatures and send monthly bank statements to the federation treasurer.

73224894.The committee chairperson shall serve for a three (3) year term and may be reappointed.

73224895.The committee shall be appointed in January of each year, and shall take office upon appointment.

73224896.Committee members shall be recommended by the committee and its chairperson. The committee members shall be appointed for a one (1) year term and may be reappointed.
